

News Release

Oregon Air National Guard

02 July 04
Release 01-07-04
Capt Misti Mazzia
142nd FW Public Affairs
(503) 335-4104

F-15 FIGHTER FLYOVERS

PORTLAND, Ore. – The Oregon Air National Guard will salute America’s celebration of Independence Day with flyovers at locations in Oregon. One pair of F-15 Eagle jet fighters from the 142nd Fighter Wing in Portland will fly over community events at the following times and locations:

Sunday, July 4

12:10 p.m.	Corbett - Parade
12:30	Redmond - Parade
1:03	Gearhart - Parade
1:05	Cannon Beach - Parade
1:07	Manzanita - Parade
1:09	Rockaway Beach
1:15	Neskowin
1:26	Yachats
1:44	Estacada - Parade
1:49	Portland (Claremont Community)
1:54	Monmouth - Parade

All passes will be approximately 1,000 feet above ground level and 300 knots airspeed. Flights could be cancelled or times changed due to inclement weather or operational contingencies.

The Oregon Air National Guard has been an integral part of the nation’s air defense since 1941. The 142nd Fighter Wing maintains continuous alert with F-15’s from Portland as part of the Western Air Defense System. For more unit information please visit our web site www.orport.ang.af.mil